

Sushil Kumar received B. Tech degree in Information Technology from UPTU in 2007 and M.E. in Software Engineering from Thapar University Patiala in 2009. He started his carrier in academics in July 2009 and joined CSE dept. of GBPEC in December 2015. He is working towards his Ph.D. in Vehicular Ad hoc Network from Thapar University, Patiala, India. His research interest includes design and evaluation of protocols in VANETs and MANETs. He published two research papers, one in international conference of Elsevier and another one in SCIE journal “Wireless personal communication” of Springer.